

AGSE Minutes (11 April 1986)

Dramatis Personae: Scott Deaver as an Inductive Example; Shelli Fowler as a Colorful Metaphor; Kathy McDonough as an Illuminator of the Text; Patricia Gambrell as a Rhetorical Scheme; JoAnn Campbell as a Spanish Quotation; Jim McDonald as an Oft-Quoted Maxim; Valerie Balerie as an Apparent Enthymeme; Rick Penticoff as a Computerized Footnote; Nancy Peterson as a Note of Clarity; and Kaye Parker as an Irrelevant Non-Sequitur.

7) Dr. Bump wants to teach a graduate course in computer composition, possibly in collaboration with Hugh Burns, an expert in artificial intelligence who lives in San Antonio (at least most of the time). The course would involve some programming but no relevant pre-requisites. Relevant questions should be directed to Dr. Bump.

11) Dr. Vandiver will be assessing the relevancy of naval power to modern warfare in his class on Tuesday. Attendance is not required.

QUOTE FOR THE WEEK:

"That's irrelevant."
