Greetings. Bill Sutherland has asked me to ask you whether sometime in the (relatively) near future we can get together to select graduate students for the FEPC advisory board for this year--i.e. the next few months. As I understand it, these students would primarily help in the selection of texts. John Ruszkiewicz and I think this will probably not be too complex an assignment given the very complete job done by Kate Frost, Beth Daniell, et al., last year. The next two weeks are impossible for me and John R., so let's think about a day soon after Spring Vacation. Maybe you could send me a note listing your free periods, and I could try to come up with a date and time.

Thanks
